

GB Group

has merged its US subsidiary into

American Crane & Tractor Parts, Inc.

Clairfield Partners acted as the exclusive financial advisor to American Crane & Tractor Parts, Inc.

GB Group has merged its US subsidiaries, American Crane & Tractor Parts, Inc. ("ACTP") and Teran Tractor Company, into ACTP.

ACTP is the leading North American distributor of replacement spare parts for heavy machines, with six distribution centers and global distribution capabilities. The combined entity has sales in excess of $70 M.

GB Group is the largest manufacturer and distributor of replacement spare parts for the agricultural and heavy machine industries with sales of approximately $170 million, three manufacturing facilities, nine distribution centers and global customer reach.

American Crane & Tractor Parts, Inc. was advised throughout the merger process by Clairfield Partners in New York, who originated and executed the transaction.
